47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I NEED SONIC! Sorry to yell this in all caps, but smaller providers like Sonic are incredibly important. For one thing, they made it possible for me to break away from Comcast, a company whose customer service mostly consists of attempts to upsell and who have been documented trying to bully customers into staying with them.

Monopolies suck. Smaller companies like Sonic need to exist. So don't do anything that makes it difficult for them to offer their services.
